

Financial Institution Account Executive

Clearent is looking for sales representatives to work with financial institution partners in communities throughout the United States. If you are a customer-focused, high-energy individual who would like to pursue a rewarding position in referral sales in the merchant credit and debit card industry, we want to talk to you.

The successful candidate will excel in building relationships, have the ability to represent our company in a professional manner and maintain a service-centric attitude before, during and after the sale. An associates degree and/or comparable work experience is required—a bachelors degree is a plus. If you lack sales experience but possess a “can do” attitude and the ability to consistently uphold a high level of service, please apply.

Clearent offers salary plus commission, a car allowance and mileage in addition to an employee benefit package.
