

Clearent Continues To Grow Partner Base

Clayton, MO – January 12, 2010 – Clearent, a national payment processing company, is proud to have recently been selected by five financial institutions as their new merchant services provider.

Additionally, over the past 60 days, 13 Independent Sales Offices have also signed on with Clearent for merchant processing services and support. Specifically, Independent Sales Offices signed covering New York, Texas, the West Coast, and the Southeast regions of the U.S.

“New partners are telling us that they are choosing Clearent because of their desire to work directly with a processor that can provide the support, business information and merchant tools they need to sell more and be more profitable. We are looking forward to helping these new Clearent partners realize those outcomes,” says Jim Messina, SVP of Sales at Clearent.
