

Truman Bank Signs with Clearent

Clayton, MO – November 11, 2009 – Clearent, a national payment processing company, recently announced that it has entered into an agreement with Truman Bank to provide merchant services.

Truman Bank, in operation since 1994, has made a commitment to offering relationship banking to both personal and business customers. Headquartered in St. Louis, Missouri, they are able to provide personal and customized service at each of their six St. Louis banking locations.

“Clearent is excited to begin working with Truman Bank and their customers. We believe our merchant services program will further support their goal of saying ‘Yes’ to their customers,” says Jim Messina, SVP of Sales with Clearent.
